This report has been reformatted since November with an updated methodology that tracks enrollment, and any associated changes (i.e., additions and terminations), as of the month in which they occur. Previous reports tracked enrollment, and associated changes, based on the member’s benefit start date. For example, if a member began coverage in January and then terminates her coverage in November, she will now be reported as a term in November; previously she would have been reported as a term in January.
